From, the Villagers of Doddurkarpanahs Petition Dt 6.2.1917 (but received in the Branch on 12.2.1917).

Pray that either their review-petition may be heard and disposed of before Sivarathri or pending disposal of their review petition, the order of Govt (conveyed in Encl^e no 1080 Dt 2.11.15) may be held in abeyance.

The petrs state that Sivarathri falls on the 21st instant, and pray that their review-petition may be heard and disposed of before that date. They further represent that if it is not possible to do so, an ad-interim order may issue to the Dy. Comm^r to keep the order of Govt in abeyance pending disposal of their review petition. They add that if neither is done, they will be put to loss etc.

The case is posted for hearing on the 2nd March next, and notices have been issued from this office both to the parties and their Advocates on 8.2.1917.

The petition is addressed to the 1st member. The members order thereon is "Mynai, Refs. early"

It does not seem possible to advance the case. Nor is there any reason to keep the Bt court's order in abeyance, the allegation of substantial loss not even touching the matter is one of sentiment and alleged manual

The P.O. of Nov. 15 has evidently been given effect to on the ground that the last sentence of the petition was framed to cover the possibility of the petitioner's being unable to obtain the services of the pleader, being himself a lawyer which will be disregarded on the ground of having been struck out. The costs may perhaps be given to the accused.

The case was heard before Court on 2d March 917, the parties were present in person and were also represented through their Advocates.

No fresh facts were adduced by either party to justify a revision of the order now in force — represented that it was impracticable to finish their utsavam in villagers of Doddakarapanahalli

The petitioners prayed for at least an extension of time of celebrating the utsavam up to 3 P.M to which the counter-petitioners (The Villagers of Malayankurki and its adjacent Villages) had no objection. Neither party showed any incli to accept the advice both should combine and celebrate the "utsavam" to the convenience of both.

In these circumstances the existing order will be duly modified to the extent that the villagers of Doddakarapanahalli allowed to conduct their utsava of Sri Byatarayaswami up to 3 P.M on the Pournami day as indicated above. after which time the utsava idol should be arranged to be handed over by the local authorities for procession by the Villagers of Malayankurki villages who take charge of the Vigraha and appurtenances for their utsava.
